

KIMBERLY DENMAN INC | LAURENT REBUFFEL AND KIMBERLY DENMAN REBUFFEL

Kimberly Denman and Laurent Rebuffel's salon was cosmopolitan while being quintessentially San Franciscan. Draperies in an Egyptian-inspired bronze silk and linen stripe from Pierre Frey hung close to the high coffered ceilings. Denman's curved sofa anchored one corner of the spacious room, upholstered in opulent chestnut velvet. The designers paired it with a glass crystal top and sculpted metal base coffee table from John Pomp.

PHOTO BY JOSE MANUEL ALORDA

SHOWCASE REVIVAL

THE 2023 SAN FRANCISCO DECORATOR
SHOWCASE RETURNS TO SEA CLIFF

TEXT KENDRA BOUTELL

COOK CONSTRUCTION | GREGORY COOK

Cook Construction was the primary contractor and has worked on six past San Francisco Decorator Showcases. New homeowners were moving into Heller House this year after the showcase closed. They hired CEO Gregory Cook and his team to restore and remodel the estate while executing the designers' room plans. Maintaining the dual timelines was challenging, but the reward was seeing the family's happiness on completion.

PHOTO BY PAUL DYER

CHROMA | LEANN CONQUER & ALEXIS TOMPKINS

An abstract mural by Rafael Arana in alabaster and epos set the stage for Chroma's dining room. Against this nuanced backdrop, Leann Conquer and Alexis Tompkins installed artisanal and vintage furnishings. Curve-backed chairs upholstered in Sandra Jordan Prima Alpaca mixed with Edward Wormley dining chairs around a custom verme eglomisé-topped dining table. White Dirt Studio's surreal paper light fixture floated in the air.

PHOTO COURTESY OF CHROMA.

DE LA CRUZ INTERIOR DESIGN | JONATHAN DE LA CRUZ

Jon de la Cruz chose monochromatic tints for the family room. To highlight its orthogonal shape and 20-ft dome ceilings, Willem Rachté Studio applied a sand-colored lime wash to the walls. An ellipse-shaped cabinet with parchment doors concealed the bar. The adults enjoy cocktails while the children play games at Angelo Mangiarotti's Eros Camera marble dining table. Mark Nelson Design's circular rug added texture.

PHOTO BY JONATHAN DE LA CRUZ